plon, and the public likes to see the champion, even when he is competing against dubs.
 Cavalcade has been one of the greatest gate attractions the turf has had in years. He is the equal of Gallant Fox and Sande, the combination that packed racing plants a few years ago. Cavalcade is probably a greater horse than Gallant Fox, but, of course, he has no Sande, with Sande's old-time fame and color, in combination with him.

Capture 56-30 Victory in Second Annual Tilt
 for Benefit

Oneq club passers made up for their defeat last year at the hands of the B'nai B'rith court combine when they handed the latter team a 56-30 setback on the Niagara A.
 A. hardwood Sunday afternoon.

The game marked the second annual meeting of the teams for the benefit of the Erie Hebrew Institute and the B'nai B'rith Home.
 More than 300 persons saw the contest.

The losers, pitted against a team of former scholastic stars, found themselves no match for their opponents except against the reserves. The score was tied at the close of the first and third periods, but in the second and fourth the winners "put on steam" to score 31 points. Summary:

DARTMOUTH SPORT
 PROGRAMS IN RED

Hanover, N. H., Feb. 4.—(U.P.)— Dartmouth college athletic council reported a deficit of $46,274 for the college year ending June, 1934, but this included the recreational program within the college, which totaled $29,386.

Organized sports showed a deficit of only $2,236, while football in 1933 had a surplus of $53,562.
 Basketball also showed a profit of $345.
