What is your favorite thing about Erie?

Presque Isle and eating out with orchestra

What is your funniest or most embarrassing moment on stage?

During a huge snow storm, the highways were closed down - more than 1 foot of snow on downtown roads but we were STILL having our concert. The musicians were placing bets on how many audience members were going to come. I bet on 30. Ken Johnston won, betting on 100+. So many people came!
